BEFORE Maître [NAME], Notary (Notaire) at [CITY, WILAYA], or by private deed where permitted, THE UNDERSIGNED: Mr./Mrs. [FULL NAME], born on [DATE] at [PLACE], of Algerian nationality, holder of ID/Passport No. [____], resident at [ADDRESS] (hereinafter “the Principal”), HEREBY APPOINTS AS SPECIAL ATTORNEY (mandataire spécial): [BROKER LEGAL NAME], RC No. [____], registered office at [ADDRESS], represented by [NAME] (hereinafter “the Attorney”), in accordance with the provisions of the Algerian Civil Code governing mandate (wakala), for the sole and limited purposes set out below in connection with the importation of the vehicle VIN [____] (“the Vehicle”) purchased by the Principal from [CHINESE EXPORTER / AutoCango supplier] (“the Exporter”).

Article 1 — Powers Granted (Strictly Limited)

The Principal authorizes the Attorney, in the Principal's name and on the Principal's account, to:

- (a) Communicate and correspond with the Exporter and its platform (including AutoCango), the inspection bodies, the freight forwarder and the shipping line, concerning the purchase, inspection, documentation and shipment of the Vehicle;
- (b) Transmit the Principal's identity details (full name, passport/ID number, address) and copies of the Principal's identity documents to the Exporter, the forwarder and the authorities concerned, solely as required to establish the export file and the transport documents in the Principal's name;
- (c) Sign and submit, in the Principal's name: shipping bookings and manifests; the application for the Electronic Cargo Tracking Note (ECTN/BSC); applications and appointments for the pre-shipment inspection and the Certificate of Conformity (COC); and the initial Chinese export documentation relating to the Vehicle;
- (d) Receive on the Principal's behalf the transport and export documents (bill of lading, commercial invoice, certificate of origin, inspection certificates, COC, ECTN/BSC) and forward them to the Principal or to the Principal's designated transitaire.

Article 2 — Express Exclusions

This mandate confers no power to: (a) purchase or sell any vehicle in the Attorney's own name; (b) acquire, hold or transfer ownership of the Vehicle, which passes directly from the Exporter to the Principal; (c) receive, hold or manage any funds of the Principal, the Vehicle Price being paid by the Principal directly to the Exporter; (d) borrow, guarantee or incur any debt in the Principal's name; (e) perform customs clearance in Algeria, reserved to the licensed transitaire appointed by the Principal; (f) sub-delegate all or part of this mandate without the Principal's prior written consent.

Article 3 — Status of the Attorney; No Transfer of Liability

3.1 The Attorney acts as a strict intermediary and facilitator. All acts performed under this mandate are performed in the name and on the account of the Principal, who remains the sole purchaser, sole importer of record and sole owner of the Vehicle.

3.2 This authorization transfers to the Attorney neither ownership of the Vehicle nor any financial liability attaching to the purchase, carriage, insurance or importation of the Vehicle, including the Vehicle Price, freight, insurance premiums, customs duties, taxes and port charges, all of which remain the Principal's exclusive obligations.

3.3 The Principal ratifies in advance all acts lawfully performed by the Attorney within the strict limits of Article 1, and shall indemnify the Attorney for reasonable documented expenses incurred within the mandate, per the Facilitation Agreement No. [____].

Article 4 — Duration and Revocation

4.1 This mandate takes effect on signature and expires automatically on the earlier of: (a) customs registration of the Vehicle in Algeria; (b) [____] months from signature; or (c) written revocation by the Principal notified to the Attorney and to the third parties concerned. 4.2 Revocation shall not affect acts validly performed before notification. 4.3 The mandate is granted intuitu personae and terminates in the cases provided by law.

Article 5 — Governing Law, Language and Legalization

5.1 This mandate is governed by Algerian law; disputes fall under the exclusive jurisdiction of the territorially competent Algerian courts. 5.2 Established in [Arabic and French; courtesy English translation]; the [Arabic] version prevails. 5.3 Practice note: for use before Chinese entities and authorities, this procuration should be notarized in Algeria and then legalized through the consular channel (Ministry of Foreign Affairs, then the Embassy/Consulate of the People's Republic of China) — to be confirmed with the notary, Algeria not applying the Hague Apostille procedure.

DONE AND EXECUTED at [CITY], on [DATE], in [] originals, whereof one for each Party and one for the notarial file. The Principal signs after the handwritten words “Good for special power of attorney” (Bon pour pouvoir spécial) — Arabic formula per the notarized version.
